

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Renata Miljevic-Ridicki

Date and place of birth: 24th July 1956, Zagreb

EDUCATION:

- 1970 Completed Elementary school (8 years) in Popovaca, Croatia
- 1974 Completed Secondary school (4 years), LANGUAGE SECONDARY SCHOOL, Zagreb, Croatia
- 1980 Graduated at Faculty of Letters, Zagreb University, Psychology as Major subject and Yugoslav literature and languages as Second subject
- 1986 Obtained Masters degree in Psychology at Faculty of Letters, Zagreb University, after extensive research. Published under the title: The variation of pupils' vocational interests and attitudes towards the future occupation during the final stage of secondary education.
- 2004 Obtained PhD degree in Psychology at Faculty of Letters, Zagreb University. Published under the title: Cognitive development of children and completeness of the family: Mediated influence of mothers' life satisfaction.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

- From 9/1980 School psychologist and teacher of psychology in the Center for Education and Vocational Training in Zabok.
- 5/1982 Editor in the Publishing Department of High Technical School for Work Safety and Firefighting in Zagreb.
- 9/1984 Child psychologist in Preschool Children Center "Ivana Brlic-Mazuranic" Zagreb.

- 9/1990 Teacher of Developmental and Educational
Psychology at the Department of Education,
Faculty of Letters, Zagreb
- 12/1993 Assistant Project Officer/ Education/Soc. Welfare
UNICEF, Office for Croatia and Slovenia, Zagreb
- 1/1995 Teacher of Developmental and Educational
Psychology at the Teacher Education Faculty,
Zagreb University (my present occupation).