

The Permanent UNESCO Chair of Leadership and the School of Government and Leadership

The University of Bahcesehir, Istanbul, Turkey

In Partnership with

The World Bank,

The United Nations Development Program and

The Center for Creative Leadership, USA

The Second Global Leadership Forum

Istanbul, June 5 – 8, 2003

Are pleased to issue this Call for Papers
on the following themes:

Leadership and Cultural Diversity

1. Islam and the West
2. Globalisation and Cultural Diversity
3. Leadership and Capacity Building
4. Leadership Across Differences: Reconciling Ethnicity, Religion, Gender and Culture
5. Leadership Initiatives in the Private Sector

Keynote Speakers:

Mrs. Harriet Fulbright

(former Executive Director of the President's Committee on Arts and Humanities in the Clinton Administration)

Ambassador Ingmar Karlsson (CG)

(Author of Islam and Europe)

Early Conference Registration only before April 15, $190 ($100 for students and participants from the developing countries);
After April 15, $250 and $150 respectively.

Early Conference Package before April 15, including registration, 4 nights and daily breakfast at a four-star hotel in downtown Istanbul, plus cultural tour and one dinner and one lunch $590 ($490 for students, participants from the developing countries);
After April 15, $690 and $590 respectively.

Please submit paper abstracts (200 words) and a brief biography no later than April 15, 2003 to Dr. Shamil Erdogan by email at: samil@bahcesehir.edu.tr or by fax at: +90-212-669-4398.

Please send checks payable to the University of Bahcesehir, Bahcesehir, 34538 Istanbul, (drawn on US or European banks only please) or Western Union for registration and conference package to: Ms. Beatrice Vanni at: The University of Bahcesehir, Bahcesehir, 34538 Istanbul, bvanni@bahcesehir.edu.tr

The sponsorship of the American Consulate General in Istanbul is gratefully acknowledged.